FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BENDIX HUNTINGTON MANUFACTURING MANAGER

BILL SCHUBERT HONORED BY COMPANY

Schubert Recognized with a 2010 Excellence in Bendix Leadership Award

ELYRIA, Ohio – June 10, 2010 – Bendix Commercial Vehicle Systems LLC recently honored Bendix Huntington, Ind., Manufacturing Business Unit Manager Bill Schubert with a 2010 Excellence in Bendix Leadership Award for his outstanding leadership and teamwork. Two Elyria, Ohio-based employees also were named as 2010 award recipients.

The annual Excellence in Bendix Leadership Award – the highest individual achievement an employee can receive – recognizes employees who may or may not hold a leadership title or manage others in their everyday role, but who exemplify leadership each day in their behavior and actions. Award recipients are nominated by their peers and recommended by their managers for their ability to bring to life the vital leadership characteristics of quality, teamwork, results, and excellence.

Schubert, a 15-year employee of Bendix, received the Excellence in Bendix Leadership Award for his accomplishments and high standards of performance at the Bendix Huntington manufacturing operations. Continuously on a quest for improvement, quality, and productivity, Schubert's team leads the activities of over 100 high-performing hourly and salaried members of the Bendix Huntington workforce.

"Bill's accomplishments can't be tied merely to numbers. He exhibits compassion, empathy, fairness, and a caring rapport in all that he does," said Bendix President and CEO Joe McAleese." He holds himself up to the highest standards of performance, and his dedication to his direct reports is shown through his sincere commitment to teamwork. Bill's personal integrity is an inspiration to his co-workers and the Huntington community at large through his involvement with United Way. A true leader, Bill empowers those around him with knowledge and responsibility to achieve their highest potential.”

Bendix, an Elyria, Ohio-based employer for nearly 80 years, designs and manufactures air brake charging and control systems and components, vehicle modules, and leading-edge safety technologies for medium- and heavy-duty trucks, tractors, trailers, buses, and other commercial vehicles around the world. Bendix employs approximately 2,000 people among its primary facilities in Elyria, Ohio; Huntington, Ind.; Bowling Green, Ky.; Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada; and Acuña, Mexico.

Operating in Huntington for 30 years, Bendix employs more than 400 Indiana residents at its Huntington facilities and is one of Huntington County’s largest employers. The Huntington site began its first remanufacturing operation in 1980 and has since grown to include four facilities, including multiple state-of-the-art integrated modules manufacturing and assembly sites. Plant 1 also serves as the primary North American distribution center for Bendix.

Before beginning his career with Bendix, Schubert worked as a health, safety, and environment manager at AlliedSignal TBS in Charlotte, N.C. A resident of Fort Wayne, Ind., Schubert earned his Bachelor of Science degree in environmental and hazardous material management from the University of Findlay, Findlay, Ohio.
